CONDITIONS OF SALE

1.—The Auctioneer may refuse the bidding of any person or persons without assigning any reason for so doing. If any dispute arises between two or more bidders as to the bidding for any lot or lots, the Auctioneer may again put up such lot or lots for sale, or otherwise finally determine such dispute.

2.—No bid, after the first, shall be made of less than one shilling more than the preceding bid, or, if above £1, of less than 2/- more than the preceding bid; and so on in proportion.

3.—The Auctioneer may, in his discretion, put up two or more lots together.

4.—The purchaser of any lot shall immediately give in his name and address to the Auctioneer, and pay a deposit of five shillings in the pound in part payment of the purchase-money, the sum so paid being applicable, in the discretion of the Auctioneer, as a deposit on such lot, or any lot or lots, bought by such purchaser. Otherwise such lot may be immediately put up again.

5.—If two or more lots are purchased by one person, the Auctioneer shall have the same lien in respect of each and all as if they had been comprised in the same contract.

6.—No sale shall be invalidated by reason of, and no compensation shall be paid to any purchaser in respect of, any fault or faults in any lot sold, or of its non-compliance with the description in the catalogue. All descriptive statements contained in the catalogue, or made by the Auctioneer, before or at the time of Sale, are to be taken as expressions of the Vendor's or Auctioneer's opinion and not as warranties.

7.—Each lot shall be at the risk of the purchaser from the fall of the hammer, but no lot must be moved before the conclusion of the Sale. Before 5 o'clock on the day after sale, each lot must be paid for and taken away by the purchaser at his own expense and risk: otherwise any deposit or deposits paid by him shall be forfeited, and such lot may be re-sold by the Vendor or Auctioneer, by auction or private contract, and the expenses of the sale thereof, and any other expenses consequent upon the lot not being removed as aforesaid, and the sum, if any, by which the price obtained upon the second sale falls short of that at which it shall have been sold at this auction, shall be paid by the Purchaser in default.

8.—In the case of lots (if any), upon which there is a reserve, the Vendor may bid personally, or by the Auctioneer or any other Agent, as many times as they respectively think fit.

N.B.—No Cheques will be accepted in payment.
